

STEWARDS NOT SATISFIED WITH WONDERLY'S RIDE ON FAVORITE

Jockey Fails to Bring Out Bessie McCarthy's Speed and Is Questioned.

IS RELEASED WITH A WARNING

Francesco, in a Drive, Beats Old Advance Guard in Handicap.

THREE FAVORITES IN FRONT

"Pittsburg Phil" Lands a Heavy Commotion in Malden, a 15 to 1 Shot—Sadducee Takes High-Weight Handicap Easily—Poor Fields the Rule.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The stewards of the Brighton Beach meeting called Jockey Wonderly before them after the second race today and asked him to explain his palpably poor ride on the favorite, Bessie McCarthy. The race was a selling event, at a mile and one-sixteenth, with eleven starters, Bessie McCarthy being heavily played at 9 to 5. Antimosity was the second choice at 9 to 2, with Liberal betting on Chouteau at five, Mosketo at six, Leone at seven, and Past at eight.

Chouteau, with Cochran up, made the running, attended part of the way by Antimosity and Golden Cottage. Then Leone went after the leader at the seven-eighths pole, with Past closing rapidly. Leone soon died away, however, and Past, catching Chouteau in the stretch, got to the wire a winner in a drive by a length, Chouteau, Hinalda and Bessie McCarthy following heads apart as named.

Filly Had No Speed.

Wonderly had the favorite far back in the race, though he got off well, and appeared to take so little interest in her that the stewards were compelled to make inquiry. Wonderly, in explanation, said that the filly had no speed and simply could not get up with the leaders. He also stated that he did not want to ride the filly anyway, and was warned and informed that he did not have to accept the mount in future. Those who saw the ride declared that Wonderly was fortunate in getting off so easily.

Three favorites were for the talent, and three outsiders took the other races, but one of the latter, Malden, who went to the post at 15 to 1, in the fifth race, enabled "Pittsburg Phil" and his friends to cash some heavy commissions. Malden started with twelve other selling players over the six-furlong route. Cornwall was the pick at 7 to 5, with Hlum next in favor at 9 to 2.

Malden, ridden by Shaw, took the track as soon as the barrier was released and was full of running. He was never caught, though Cornwall put up a plucky enter chase. Malden won by a half a length, Cornwall finishing a length before Oclawaho, a 15 to 1 shot. The time was 1:33 2-5.

Dwyer's Handicap.

The handicap at one mile and a furlong furnished lively betting and a spectacular race. Dwyer's Francesco and Ethica were coupled favorites at 11 to 5, played down from three. Old Advance Guard, packing 125 pounds, was the original favorite at two, but receded to 13 to 5. St. Finnian at four, and Sadie S. at five, were also fancied by many because of their light weights.

At the word of command Sadie S. set the pace ahead of Francesco for a half mile and then slowly gave up the ghost. Francesco raced on with a lead of a length over Advance Guard and Ethica, heads apart, to the head of the stretch. Michaels took no chances after that but proceeded to ride Francesco out to the wire, where he defeated Advance Guard by a length and a half in the first time of 1:31 2-5, two-fifths of a second slower than the best record for the track, held jointly by Rochampton and Watercure. Odum had to drive Advance Guard with all his skill to take the place from Ethica by a head. Cupidor and Sadie S. neck and neck, were five lengths away.

Sadducee, the odds-on favorite in the high weight handicap for all ages at three-quarters of a mile, won easily by a length. O'Connor rated him along nicely behind Isid, Meisteringer and Clonmell to the turn and then drew away. Ben Mac Dhui came fast in the last furlong and secured the place by a length from Meisteringer.

GOOD RACING AT HARLEM.

Heavy Track Has No Effect on Quality of Sport on the Chicago Track.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Despite the heavy track at Harlem this afternoon the class of horses entered in the six races was extremely good, and the races furnished excellent sport. The features were the Emerald Steeplechase for four-year-olds and upward, over the short course, and the handicap at six furlongs, for three-year-olds and upward. Helen Paxton, a 5 to 1 shot, won the steeplechase in good style after a race with Placens and Falella, the favorite being unplaced.

That good old mare Brulure was favorite in the handicap, and she showed her consistency and worth by winning easily from Haviland, with Bummer third. Only two favorites were successful, Rheta in the first and Brulure in the second, however, and a well-backed horse, and the talent quit winner on the day. The summaries follow:

First race—For two-year-olds; five furlongs. Rheta (Coburn), even; won; Grace (Belgrace), 8 to 1, second; Philo (Otis), 12 to 1, third. Time 1:06 1-5.
Second race—Selling; for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and seventy yards. Amy Williams (Coburn), 5 to 2, won; Dolly S. (Meade), even, second; Tremham (Otis), 4 to 1, third. Time 1:26.

Third race—For three-year-olds and upward; one mile. Corriean (Ranch), 2 to 1, won; Marcus (Helferson), 4 to 1, second; Death (Coburn), even, third. Time 1:48.
Fourth race—The Emerald Steeplechase; for four-year-olds and upward; short course. Helen Paxton (Lloyd), 5 to 1, won; Placens (L. A. Johnson), 4 to 1, second; Falella (Coburn), 5 to 1, third. Time 3:49 2-5.

Fifth race—Handicap; for three-year-olds and upward; six furlongs. Brulure (Rensch), 6 to 1, won; Haviland (Rensch), 6 to 1, second; Bummer (Dowler), 6 to 1, third. Time 1:31 1-5.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 28.—Active, the eight-year-old Sayre mare, who has shown such good form at the present meeting at Delmar, was the favorite in the feature event this afternoon, but the best she could do was to finish third, behind Ethylene and Father Wentker. In the second race, a selling affair, at seven furlongs, Fugurtha finished third, but was disqualified for fouling, Maggie Clepton being given third money. Three favorites won, Samba in the second, Felix Bard in the fifth and Blue Mint in the last. The first race was won by 10 to 1 shot, The Advocate, while Latika, at 6 to 1, took the third. Track fast. Summaries:

MUDDY TRACK MAY MAR OPENING AT SARATOGA

Speculation Rife as to Winner of the Big Handicap.

HERBERT IS IN HIGH FAVOR

Many Prominent Stables Already at Track—John Madden to Send String to New Orleans—Gwynne Tompkins Returns Ad Ack to Former Owner.

The continued rainy weather at Saratoga has made the race track there very heavy, and already speculation as to the winner of the Saratoga Handicap on the opening day revolves around the mud.

The most fancied horses now are Articulate and Herbert, both of which are well-known mud horses. Herbert has been at the Spa some time and has been going well in his work. Still, the Albert club has been a disappointment this year and has not run up to his work. Articulate was probably the best handicap horse in the West this year, and Western turfmen believe that he could give Gold Heels a race.

Among the stables already at Saratoga are those of Messrs. W. C. Whitney, Frank Farrell, R. A. Smith, J. E. Seagram, W. P. Birch, James McLaughlin, W. B. Jennings, Turner Brothers, J. E. Madden and J. G. Follambree.

There is talk of a race at St. Louis between Otis, Dewey, Helen Print, Terra Firma and other crack three-year-olds. John E. Madden will send a string of horses to New Orleans this winter to race at the meeting there. The horses that are to represent the Kentuckian there are being put up at a very high price and include some pretty good racing material. There are no crimples among them. The horses will be in charge of Hiram Steele.

Gwynne Tompkins, the Washington horseman, who bought Ed Adack out of a selling race the other day, has returned the horse to his former owner, J. T. Stewart, for the same price he paid, $1,900.

G. C. Bennett, owner of Aladdin, who controls the services of Jockey Coburn, has notified the Harlem officials that Coburn will not be permitted to accept the mount on any of S. C. Hildreth's horses in the future.

Judge Francis Trevelyan, the president official at Harlem, has suspended Jockey Buchanan for his bad ride on Searcher on Saturday. Owner Hildreth has also been called to account by Judge Trevelyan.

FIVE SELLING RACES.

Card at Highland Park Made Up of Cheap Affairs, But Racing Is Good.

DETROIT, Mich., July 28.—All but one of the races on the program at Highland Park this afternoon were selling affairs, the sport, however, was first class, and as four favorites and a strong second choice were successful the crowd went home well pleased. The feature of the sport was a five-furlong race for two-year-olds, second on the card, and it was captured by Mackesey's good youngster, Alva, 8 to 1, in a very close finish.

As he flashed past the wire getting away, the Senator's watch snapped sharply. Snapped again as the colt passed the quarter pole and came tearing down past the railbirds' roost, where his owner is seated.

"He's going good galloped this morning," some one in the line of spectators remarked.

"Yes, sir; he seems to be going very nicely. I caught that quarter in 0.363," he replied in sonorous, oratorical tones. "Will somebody call that half? I don't know exactly where to snap. It is largely guesswork from this point."

The half pole is straight up the backstretch, but somebody knows a bush that the experts snap on and never miss it. "Up!" says the caller, snap goes the watch and "104" is what the Senator announces. Rea takes the colt down to the three-quarters in 1:45 1-2 and home in 2:19 flat. "A good mile for the time of the year," volunteers one of the railbirds.

"Yes, sir; he is a pretty fair colt," remarks Mr. Bailey, while he waits for another youngster to appear. You can hear him calling out to the trainers as they pass joggling their charges.

"What's that youngster you've got this morning?" "This is a yearling by Red Chute out of a Simmons mare." "Nice going thing," yells back the Senator, and so it goes until Rea brings out another colt. When the last one has finished, it is "Good morning, gentlemen," and the Senator's turfman departs in the direction of the barn to see how they have cooled out.

Thirty Head of Mares.

Senator Bailey has prodigal and about thirty head of brood mares at the Todhunter farm, nine miles from Lexington. They are under the management of Ernest Petherston, as are the twelve sucking foals that have been dropped this year. Among the prized mares are: Vera Capel 2:07 1-2, by Wilton 2:19, dam Cricket, with foal by Birchwood.

Lady Princeton 1:54, by Princeton, dam Walk-a-Bit, with foal by Birchwood. Erma 2:18 1-2, (dam of three in the list), by Nutwood, dam Maggie Medium, with foal by Alfred G. 2:19 1-2.

Eckla Girl (dam of Ashland Boy 2:28 1-2), by Wilkes Boy, dam Lady Ham (dam of Hawthorn 2:13 and three others in the list), with foal by Alfred G. 2:19 1-2.

Rea B. (dam of Dentine 2:13 1-2, Beale Owens 2:12 1-2 and two others in the list), by Cyclone, dam Lorraine, with foal by Allerton 2:09 1-2.

Lilien Tucker (sister to Dentine, 2:13 1-2), with foal by Allerton, 2:09 1-2. Matilda, 2:30 (dam of Bronson Cooper), trial, 2:11 1-2, and three others in the list.

Run Over by Wagon.

William J. Orina, aged five years, was run over by a furniture wagon shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He escaped with slight injuries about the body. The accident occurred on B Street, between First and Second Streets northwest. The injured boy was removed to his home, 121 Second Street northwest, where he was attended by Dr. Wade Atkinson.

Negro Charged With Theft.

Hattie Williams, a negro, living in Georgetown, yesterday afternoon caused the arrest of Peter Williams, on a charge of stealing her gold watch. He was locked up in the Seventh precinct station. Williams says he cannot understand why the woman wants to make trouble for him.

ONLY RAILBIRD IN THE U. S. SENATE

Mr. Bailey of Texas Has Big Stock Farm in Kentucky.

FOND OF THE TROTTERS

Trainer Joe Rea in Charge of Brood—Has Many Promising Yearlings—Southern Statesman Holds a Breeding Theory of His Own.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 26.—Any morning during his periodical visits to Lexington Senator Bailey of Texas can be seen at the Kentucky Breeders' Association track. In Kentucky Mr. Bailey is "the Senator," railbird, horse trader, trotting enthusiast and pedigree expert. He has figured in the ranks of the breeders for several years.

This year, for the first time, he will be extensively represented on the turf. Mr. Bailey has engaged the noted trainer, Joe Rea, who comes fresh with his triumphs from that noted establishment, the Bitter Root stud, of the late Marcus Daly.

For the first time the Texas statesman has an entire farm leased for his brood mares and stallion, the sensational Prodigal, 2:16, that he purchased at the Daly disposal sale.

His Favorite Seat.

His favorite seat at the local trotting track is a plain wooden plank nailed against the high outside fence above the three-eighths pole. This is just opposite his training barn, and here he sits under the shade of an overhanging tree and times his trotters. Every rubber, stable, attaché, trainer, owner or breeder or visitor to the track knows the familiar figure in the blue broadcloth Prince Albert suit, the black slouch hat, and when he takes his position on the bench the word is passed around, "I see the Senator" over there against the fence. Guess Joe'll step 'em up a little this morning."

Rea rarely scores one down to the wire and flashes away on a fast trial mile during the Senator's visit that his good timing watch is not ticking off the seconds and splitting at the various quarters as the distance is reeled off.

Rea had the bay son of Prodigal and Ethel Aaron in prime condition for a good heat after two warming up miles.

Senator Holds Watch.

As he flashed past the wire getting away, the Senator's watch snapped sharply. Snapped again as the colt passed the quarter pole and came tearing down past the railbirds' roost, where his owner is seated.
